

I wish to express my concern about Sinclair Broadcast Group's use of the public airwaves to present an unfair and unbalanced view of John Kerry in an attempt to influence the upcoming election. For Sinclair to require its stations to air partison political material on public airwaves betrays the public trust. I strongly urge the FCC to fulfill its mission by requiring Sinclair to balance its portrayal of John Kerry.

Sincerely,
Vicki Marvick